

Five Steps Online Formula...

“How I Attract MORE Leads, MORE Prospects and Recruit MORE New Reps Without Talking About My MLM Biz On Facebook, Twitter – Not Even on My Personal Blog”

Surprised? I know You Should, but not after you've read through this short Guide!

Casmire Okafor/ CasmireOkafor.com

Casmire Okafore is from Lagos State, Nigeria. He became an apprentice for a clothing store and awaited the payoff. To his shock, the store owner sold the shop and left the country. Casmire was left with nothing until a man presented him with a network marketing opportunity. Things were great until Casmire's downline started leaving. He then found a mentor and rebuilt his business. Now, he wants to help others succeed as well.

Hey friend!

I see you are interested - ready to learn my simple yet the most effective MLM recruiting formula.

Congratulations!

Yeah, as promised I'm willing to guide and show you my step-by-step online recruiting formula which guarantees you have more new signups in your MLM business.

So, no long story! This is not going to be a long read - as usual, but simple as possible and straight to the point.

Here's it, my friend...

What I Do to Recruit MORE New Downlines online and How You Too Can Model The Exact Same Formula and Recruit like pros!

Step 1.

List Building. There is a saying, "the money is in the list".

Yeah, it is, I have personally experienced and confirmed the truthfulness of these words and I can rightly tell you, as a network marketer, there is no other BIG secret in online recruiting than having a HUGE email list!

Don't worry I will explain!

Email list is your subscribers.

When you have a blog or lead magnet and lots of people subscribing to learn or know more about your business, you are building a list. That is it, and that's what I do.

Now, how can you generating MORE leads and prospects to start sponsoring new downlines into your MLM business?

Step 2.

VERY IMPOTANT: Set up your own MLM blog or a Lead Magnet (Capture) page system. Integrate with autoresponder, and add about 5 MLM email follow up series.

Once you set up any of these systems, it serves as your central hub where your prospects can find you. It can also become your funnel for recruiting new people.

If you want us to work together to get your own online recruiting system up and running, I am here to help – just halah me on Facebook or give me a call.

Let's continue...

Step 3

I use Facebook a lot, not for gossip, but for business – to drive a lot of traffic to my blog, and you can do same starting today. You can do this by first, increasing your Facebook friends by having between 2000 to 5000.

I do send about 20 -50 friend requests daily using “Facebook Lite” mobile app. As such I should not worry about Facebook limiting my daily friend requests.

If you use an android phone, simply download the app and start building your friends base right away.

NOTE: when sending friend requests, send only to those who have mutual friends with you.

Step 4.

Join Facebook MLM and Network Marketing Groups. On your FB search box, type in “MLM” or “Network Marketing” or specific MLM company, this will show you all groups in that categories.

Next, start joining ones with many members. Once approved, connect with group members, like, comment on their updates and send them some messages asking them how they are doing.

Step 5

Post regularly. Hey you don't have to do this manually; I use this tool SlackSocial to auto-post in many groups and its working great for me.

When posting on Facebook profile and groups, give tips on Network Marketing. DO NOT talk about your primary MLM opportunity upfront.

Add your new MLM blog or Lead Magnet link on your updates. Doing so will help get your link out there for more people to view.

As more people see your post, regular comments and value-based contents, likely – they would be compelled to follow you.

Hey Casmire, How Does All These Steps Translate Into MORE New Signups?

Very Simple! As more people begin to see the value you provide - being a Network Marketing trainer and leader, congrats friend, you've won the battle.

What follows next would seem like a miracle and everything about your recruiting will change for good.

Next, you start getting calls, Facebook messages, whatsapp messages and emails from highly interested MLM prospects ready, even begging to join your MLM opportunity.

Hope this helps
